1 - 5 - 15: What American Veterans Want You to Know

What Veterans Want You to Know was a course created to educate anyone who works with, lives with, or cares for veterans. PsychArmor asked hundreds of Veterans what they want civilian employers, health care providers, and therapist to know about them. There were hundreds of comments and patterns. We took those comments and broke it down into 15 things Veterans want civilians to know. This course will teach you 5 questions you should always ask veterans, 1 question you should never ask veterans, and 15 facts that will make your more culturally competent.

Subject Areas

- Military Culture
- Military Cultural Competency

Target Audience

This course is recommended for all civilians, providing them with an overview to military culture and enabling them to effectively work with military and veteran populations

Format

- Web-Based Training
- Self-Study (Online)

Outcomes & Objectives

1. List 5 questions you should ask a veteran to learn more about their experience in the military.
2. Recognize the one questions you should never ask a veteran.
3. Discuss the five Armed Services and the proper name of each service member
